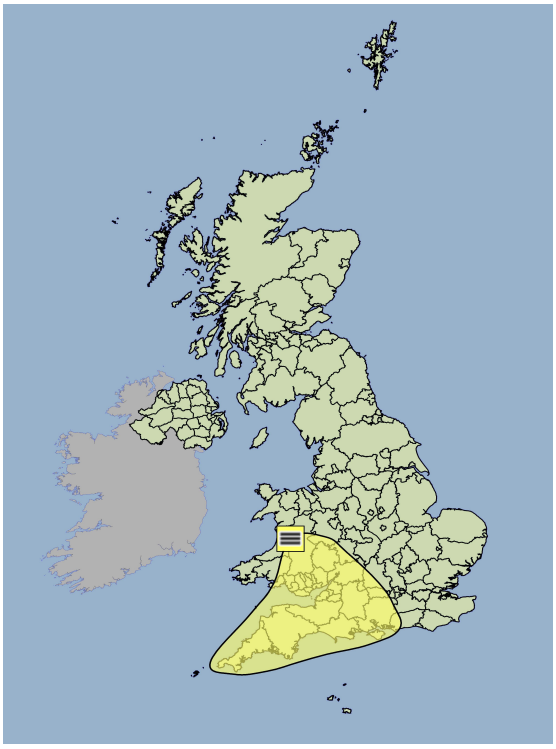
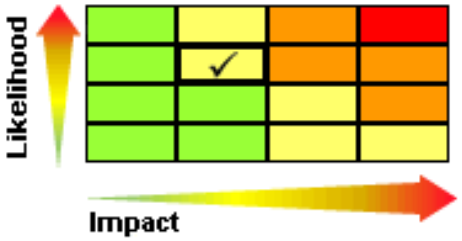
National Severe Weather Warning Service





Chief Forecasters Assessment
After Mondays rainfall surfaces have been left damp and clearing skies overnight have allowed patchy fog to develop.

Some of the fog is expected to become dense in places before clearing readily during this morning with most areas clear of fog by 0900BST.

The Met Office have issued a Yellow Warning of Fog

Valid from 04:30 on Tue, 01st Apr 2014 until 09:00 on Tue, 01st Apr 2014

Patchy dense fog is expected this morning with visibility reduced to 50 metres in places. This will lead to difficult driving conditions during this mornings rush hour.

The public are advised to be aware of the potential for disruption to travel.
